

Mari State University

*Introduction of the Professional Standard for a Teacher in Russia:
Problems and Perspectives*

Introduction

- The professional standard for a teacher (teaching activity in the field of preschool, primary general, basic general, secondary general education) was approved by the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection of the Russian Federation on October 18, 2013 by the Order No. 544n

Main goals of the application of the standard

- to determine the necessary qualification of a teacher which influences the results of teaching, upbringing and developing of a child;
- to provide the necessary training of a teacher to obtain high results of his work;
- to provide necessary awareness of a teacher of the imposed requirements;
- to promote the involvement of teachers in solving the tasks of improving the quality of education

Structure of the professional standard for a teacher

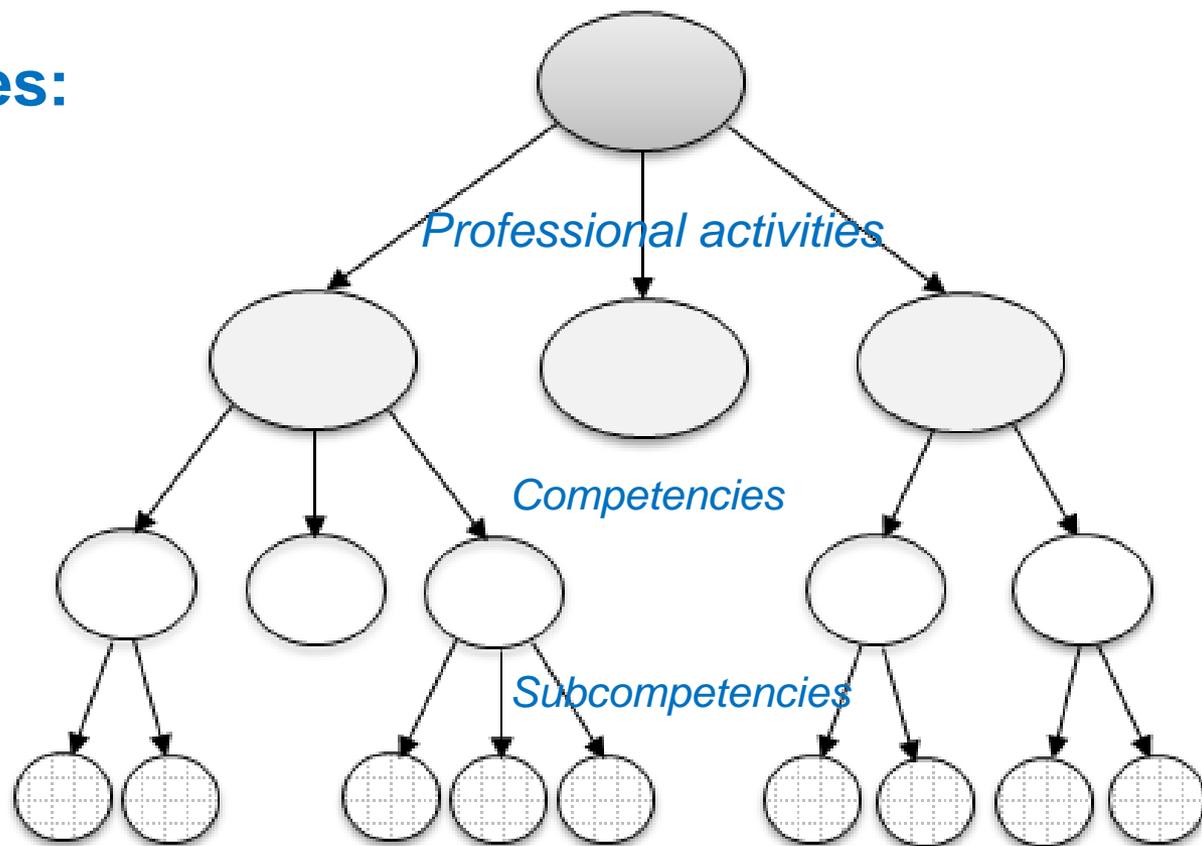

Cluster of competences of a teacher in accordance with the requirements of the standard

Professional activities:

- Regulatory
- Psychological and physiological
- Teaching
- Educational
- Developing
- Social and cultural
- Communication
- Research and development
- Organization and management

The survey “Problems and prospects of implementing the professional standards into the Russian system of education”

239 teachers of secondary schools of the Mari El Republic (the Russian Federation)

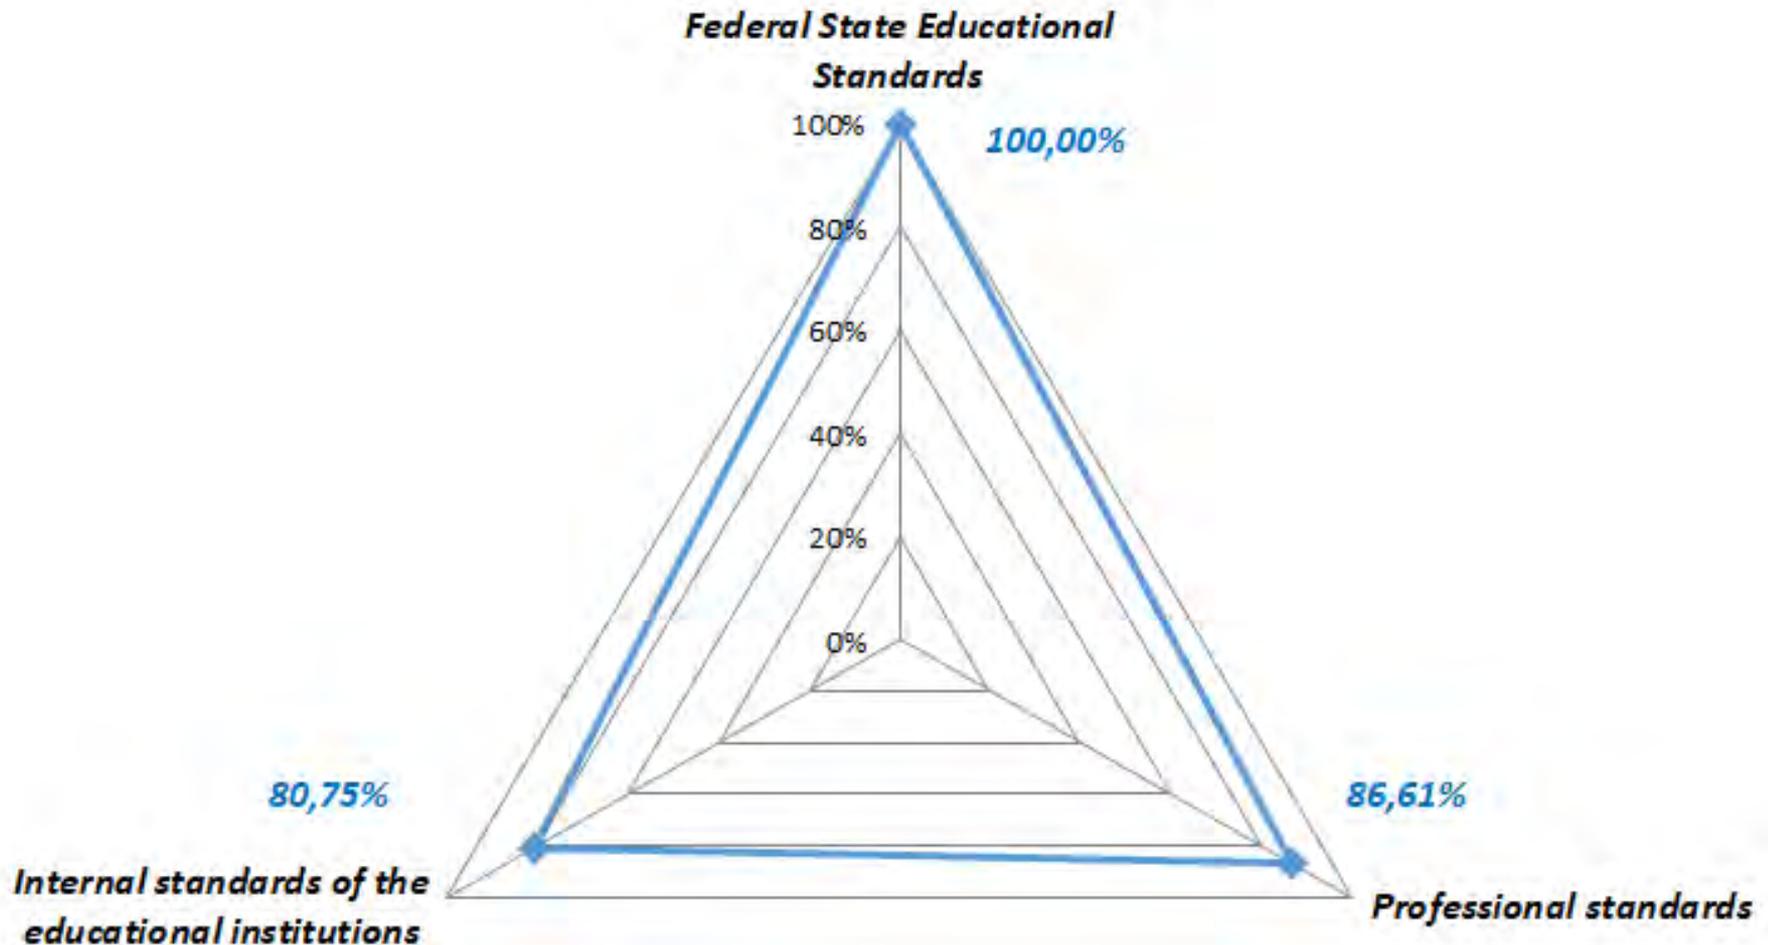

The survey mainly included teachers aged from 25 to 59 years old (92.4%)

All respondents 100% were citizens of the Russian Federation

The survey "Problems and prospects of implementing the professional standards into the Russian system of education"

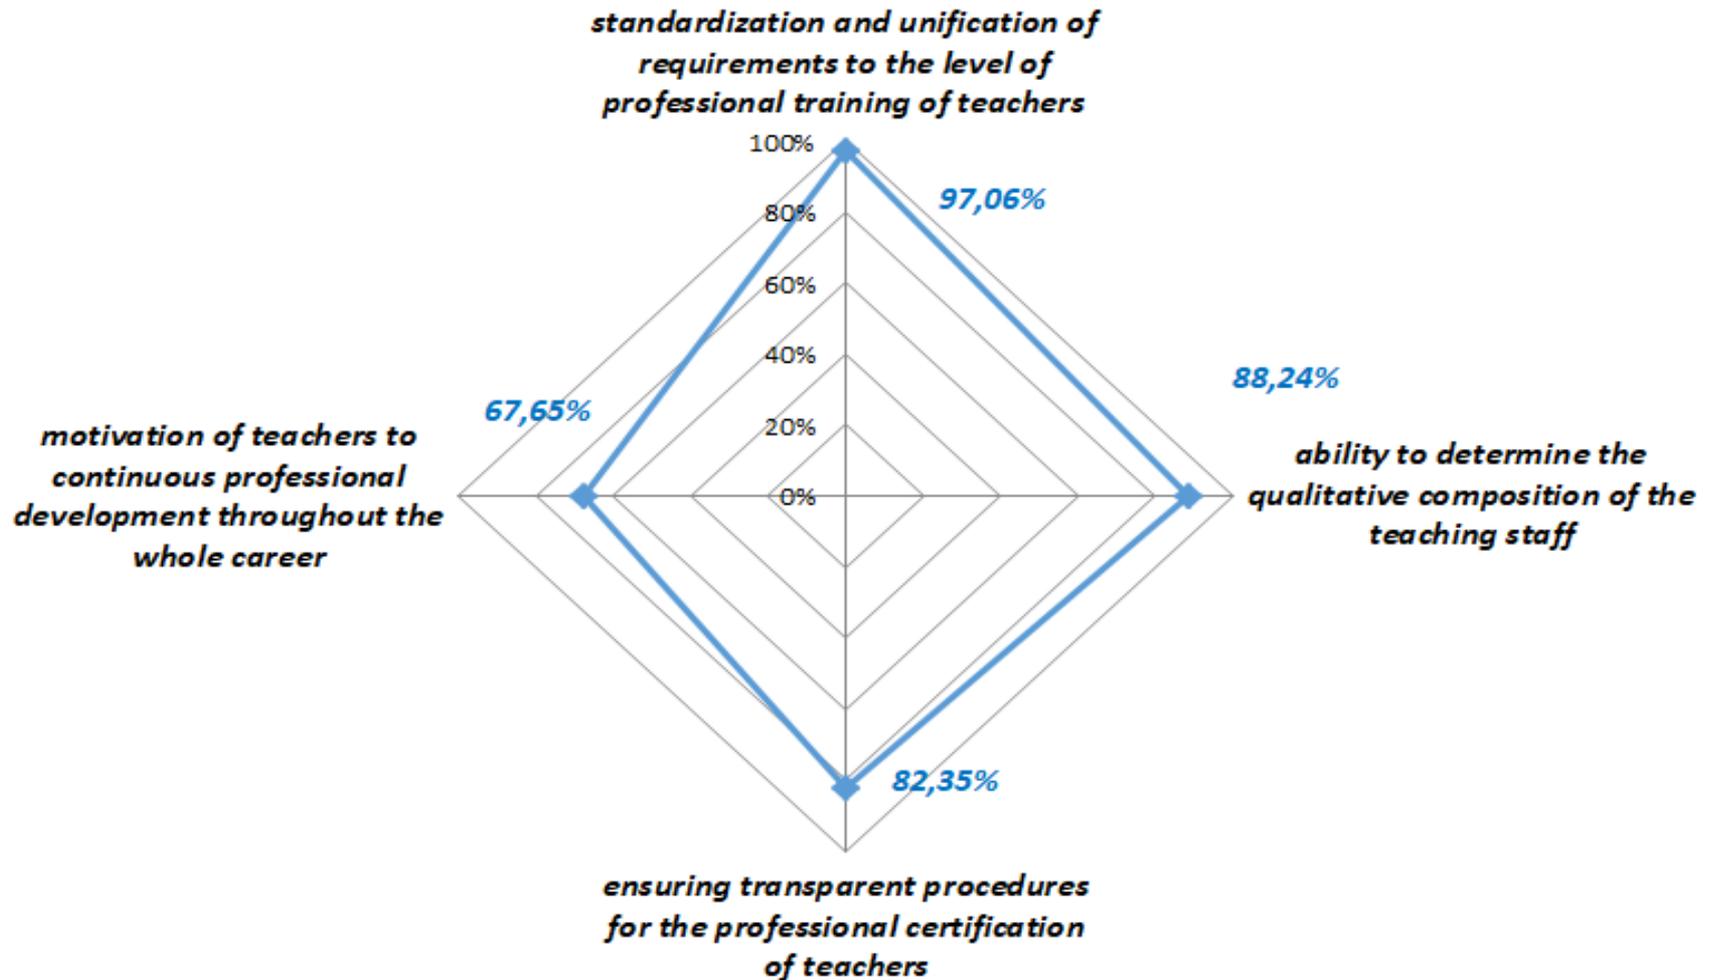

"Which standards do you rely on to a greater extent in the development of educational programs?"

The survey "Problems and prospects of implementing the professional standards into the Russian system of education"

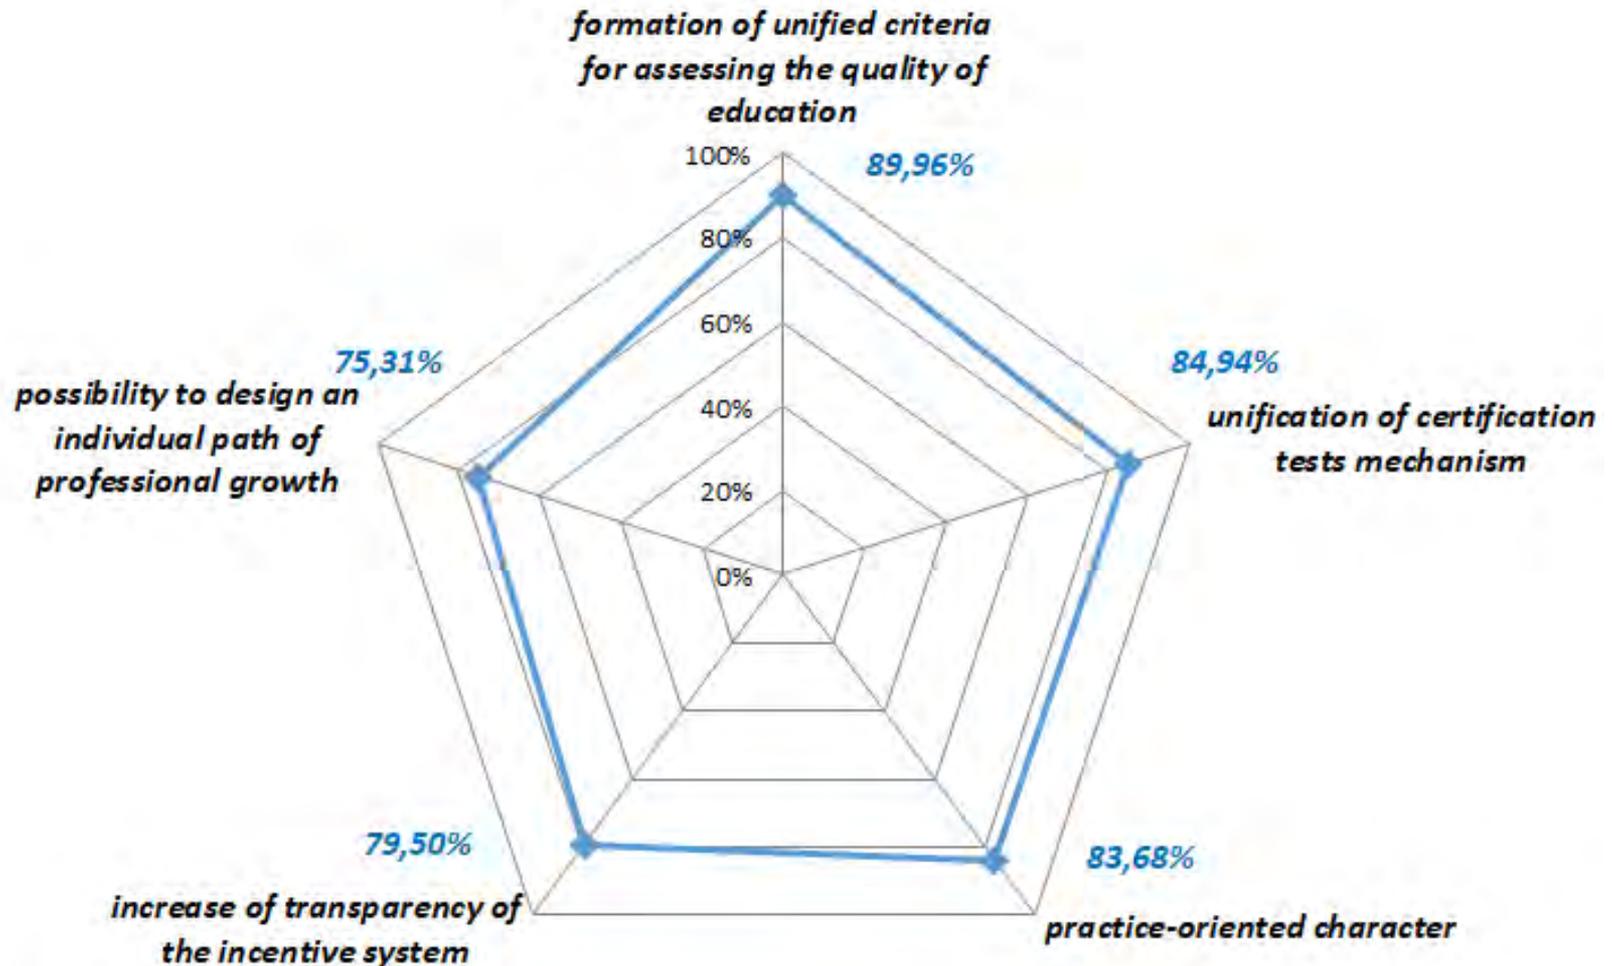

"The main advantages of the introduction of the professional standards for heads of educational institutions"

The survey "Problems and prospects of implementing the professional standards into the Russian system of education"

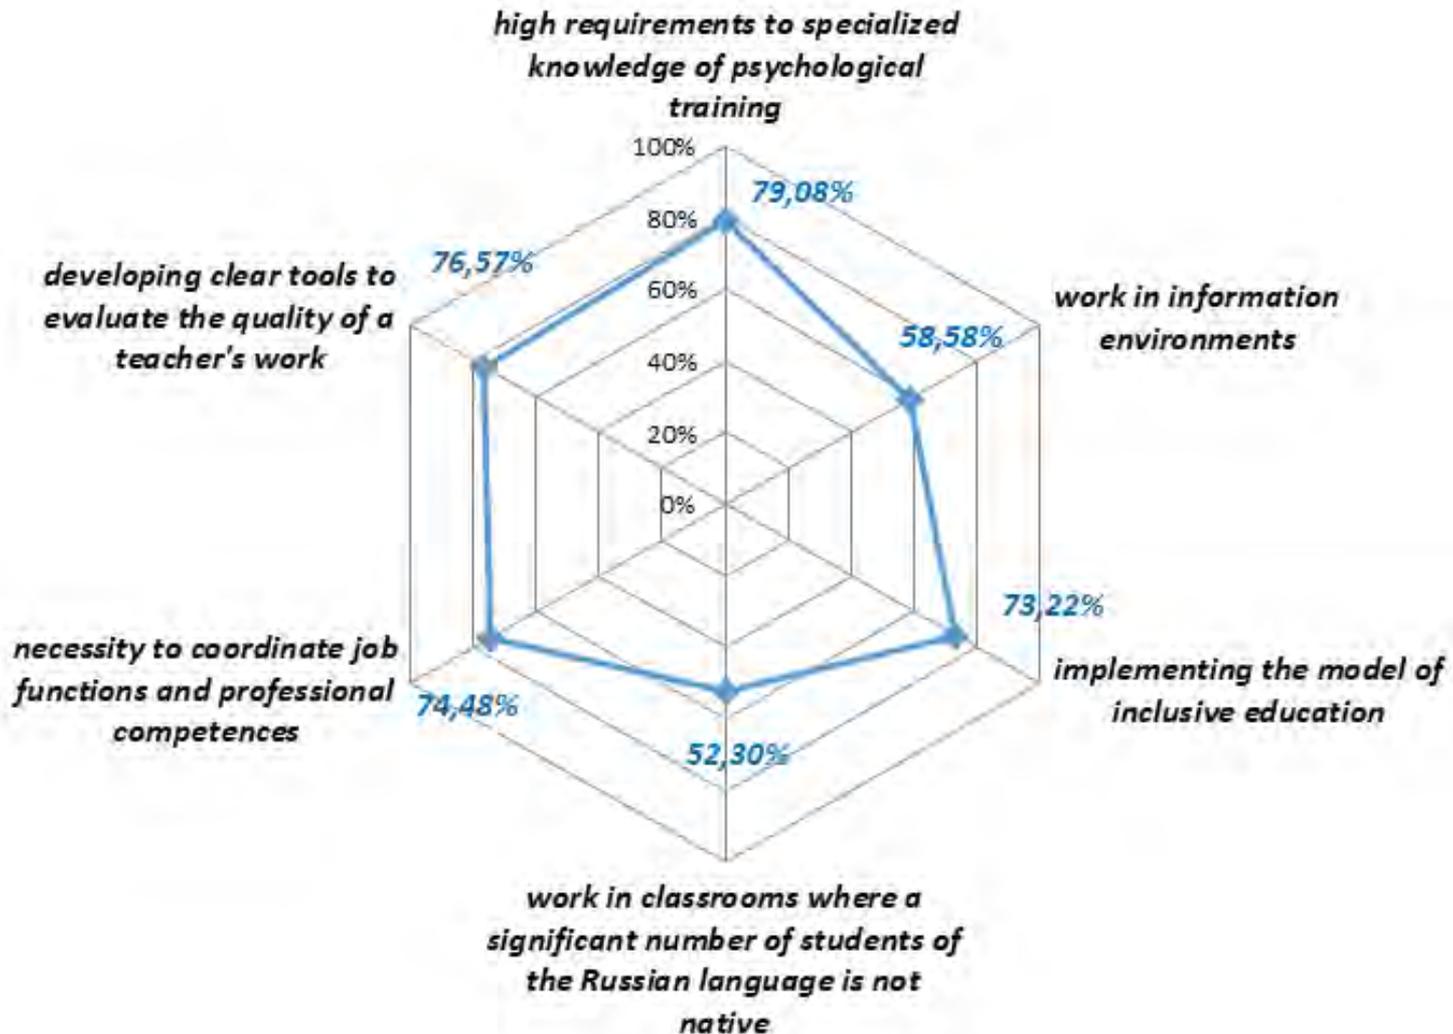

"The main advantages of the introduction of the professional standards for teachers of educational institutions"

The survey "Problems and prospects of implementing the professional standards into the Russian system of education"

"The main difficulties of the introduction of the professional standards for teachers of educational institutions"

New Educational Standards for teacher training

- Federal State Educational Standard of Higher Education - Bachelor in major “Teaching Education”: approved by the Order of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russia No. 121 dated February 22, 2018
- Federal State Educational Standard of Higher Education - Bachelor in major “Teaching Education (with two educational program specializations)”: approved by the Order of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russia No. 125 dated February 22, 2018
- Federal State Educational Standard of Higher Education - Master in major “Teaching Education”: approved by the Order of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russia No. 126 dated February 22, 2018

Conclusions

- expansion and improvement of practice-oriented component in the preparation of future teachers
- strengthening the psychological and teaching component
- additional degree of freedom for educational institutions and regions

Mari State University

Thank you for attention!